THE PORTE STILL SILENT

Three Weeks Since the Demand of the United States was Made.

The Sultan Eas Exceeded a Reason able Period in Which to Prepare and Present an Answer-America May Send an Ultimatum to Turkey Containing a Time Limit.

Today marks the end of the third week since the American demand for the prompt Governor Shaw Leads the Fight in settlement of the Armenian indemnity was presented to the Porte by Lloyd C. Griscom, the Charge d'Affaires of the United States at Constantinople. Turkey has made no response although it was plainly stated in the note that this Government | back of him a large number of laymen and expected that her answer would not be some ministers, whost motto was "Not delayed. In speaking about the character of the communication presented by Mr. Griscom, a State Department official said two days after it was laid before the Foreign Office authorities in Constantinople: "While it is not an ultimatum, we are pressing Turkey as hard as we can and will continue to do so. We have demanded prompt settlement and will insist upon our demand being acceded to."

It was explained by officials at the time

It was explained by officials at the time that Turkey would be given a reazonable period within which to submit her answer. In the opinion of many of those interested in the matter that reasonable period has passed. The President and the other officials where the contract of the contra cials who will define the attitude of the the definition of the same opinion, but those in the inner Administration circle are not disposed to discuss the matter.

There was a press report from Constantinople last week that Mr. Griscom had renewed the demand, but the State Department authorities are that while his original. ment authorities say that while his originai instructions would permit him to press.

Turkey, he has not informed the Department of any second attempt to stir the Porte to action and had not been specifically instructed to take that course. In view of the present condition of the necessitations, it is not impressible that the gotiations it is not impossible that the Government will make another and stiffer demand with a time limit set within which Turkey must make a definite response.

So far the United States Government has made no threats as to what it would do if the indemnity is not paid. Its latest note did not even imply a threat. Whether there will be an ultimatum if Turkey makes an unsatifactory reply or ignores the American demand has not been ascertained, but following the usual course of diplomacy, a formal warning will perhaps be delivered before this Government resorts to the extreme of breaking off diplomatic relations with the Sultan. Be-Government will make another and stiffer lomatic relations with the Sultan. Be youd such a severance the Government will hardly go if present intentions are carried

He renewed the suggestion, made by Turkey some time ago and ignored by the United States, that the Sultan be permitted to pay the indemnity under cover of a payment to an American shipbuilding concern that would be given a contract for constructing a warship for the Turkish Navy. The minister's representations were not made, it is understood, by direction of not made, it is understood, by direction of his Government and for that reason have not served to lessen the feeling of impatience and provocation which exists here on account of the failure of the Porte to answer the demands contained in Mr. Griscom's rote.

The committee on Episcopacy decided exterday afternoon, after two hours' debate, to recommend the election of two additional bishops. The vote had been no sooner announced than Governor Shaw called for a rally of all the opponents of the proposal to create more offices. He organized his following last night and in the corridors of the Auditorium his morning, and went into the meeting determined to win. All other matters were lost sight of at the session.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. S. F. Upham, of the Drew Theological Seminary. Bishop Isaac Joyce, presided at the business session. Less than an hour was taken up in the usual rollcall and shortly before 10 o'clock the report of the committee on Episcopacy was called for. The report recommended the election of two new missionary bishops and two new home bishops. Then came the animated debate on the proposition.

While the report was very loud, little damage was done, except to Martin's saloon, one side of which was wrecked. It is the opinion of some that it was done by some of the Prohibitionists who made such a fight against the granting of any license, while others hold that it was done by some of inose who were denied license.

Counterfelt Cigar Label Case. READING, Pa., May 15 .- James E. Noron was called for sentence in Judge Endlichs' court, having been convicted of printing counterfeit labels of the International Cigarmakers' Union. The attorney for the union stated that this was one of the most annoying cases the union ever had; that 50,000 of the spurious labels had been sold out of the million printed; that three other persons were under indictment for selling them, and that the union had suffered considerably. Judge Endlich said that the printing was morally wrong, but no particular harm had been done, as comparatively few of the labels had been sold. The jury had recommended mercy, and the court would impose a fine of $20 and costs. Norton will take the case to the superior court. Many labor union people were present. tional Cigarmakers' Union.
